AUSTRALIA

PART I. - CROSS-CLASSIFICATIONS OF THE CHARACTERISTICS OF THE POPULATION

PREFACE

This publication contains particulars of characteristics of the population of the Commonwealth of Australia recorded at the 1954 Census (Age, Conjugal Condition, Birthplace, Period of Residence in Australia of Persons born outside Australia, Nationality, Religion, Industry and Occupational Status). Information is provided - (i) for Australia as a whole in comparison with earlier Censuses, (ii) for the metropolitan urban, other urban, and rural divisions of Australia, and (iii) for Australia as a whole in cross-classification with other recorded characteristics of the population. No information is given in this Part for States and Territories, except for a summary table for each characteristic. Cross-classifications of the characteristics of the population of each State will be found in Part II of the respective State Volumes and of each Territory in the Territories Volume. Each State Volume contains five Parts, in three of which (Parts II., IV. and V.) the arrangement of the Tables is identical in all essential respects with the relevant Parts (Parts I., II. and III. respectively) of the Australia Volume while the other two Parts provide information on population and dwellings, respectively, for all individual local government areas, irrespective of size, and non-municipal towns of 1,000 persons or more (750 in Tasmania).

In this Part separate particulars are given for each sex, and 1954 Census totals for persons are provided for each characteristic. In addition, information is provided on the masculinity, density, and intercensal increases of the population of Australia.

This is the second Part issued of the three Parts which, together with the Statistician's Report and the Australian Life Tables, will constitute the Census Volume for Australia. Part III. - Population and Occupied Dwellings in Localities (with Geographical Co-ordinates) has already been issued while Part II. - Cross-classifications of the Characteristics of Dwellings and of Householders, the Statistician's Report and the Australian Life Tables are in course of preparation.

Particulars relating to Tropical Australia have not been included in the detailed tables of the relevant Parts as with previous Censuses, but have been published separately.

Inside the back cover of this Part is a list of 1954 Census publications issued by this Bureau.

Explanatory Notes relative to the contents of the Part follow the Table of Contents.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Urban and Rural Divisions (Divisions of State) – The Divisions of the Commonwealth of Australia – Metropolitan Urban, Other Urban, Rural and Migratory, as defined for Census purposes and as referred to throughout this Part, are constituted as follows: –

Metropolitan Urban: For the 1954 Census the Metropolitan Urban Division includes the statistical metropolitan areas of the capital cities of the States, and the City of Canberra, the capital city of Australia.

The boundaries of each State metropolitan area are determined for Census purposes by the Statistician of the State in collaboration with the Commonwealth Statistician, and normally include the city proper and all contiguous urban areas. In order to conform to the growth of the metropolitan urban population the boundaries are reviewed prior to each Census and adjustments made, wherever necessary, to embrace contiguous urban areas that have developed since the previous Census. In this way amendments were made as from 1st January, 1954 to the boundaries of the Metropolitan Urban Divisions in New South Wales, Victoria and Tasmania.

At the 1954 Census, for the first time the City of Canberra was included in the Metropolitan Urban Division; previously it was included in the Other Urban Division, or, as it was known at previous Censuses, the Urban Provincial Division.

As a result of these changes the area of the Division was increased by 862 square miles and the population so added, at the Census of 30th June, 1954, was 442,940.

Other Urban: The Other Urban Division comprises the capital city of the Northern Territory, all separately incorporated cities and towns, irrespective of size, and all other towns with a population of 1,000 persons or more (750 in Tasmania) outside the Metropolitan Urban Divisions.

The inclusion in the Other Urban Division in 1954 of the larger towns not separately incorporated was a significant departure from the classification adopted at previous Censuses, when those towns (in all States except Tasmania) were included in the Rural Division, and the Other Urban Division (or Provincial Urban Division) was restricted to provincial separately incorporated cities and towns only. This transfer was designed to secure a more realistic subdivision of urban and rural areas outside the Metropolitan Urban Division.

Rural: The Rural Division comprises the remaining portions of each State and Territory, and is affected by the intercensal changes in the areas of the Metropolitan Urban and Other Urban Divisions. As already mentioned, the Rural Division in 1954 excludes towns of 1,000 persons or more (750 in Tasmania) which were not separately incorporated.

Migratory: This refers to persons not elsewhere enumerated who at midnight between 30th June and 1st July, 1954 were travelling on ships in Australian waters, or on long-distance trains or aircraft.

Variation in the boundaries of urban and rural divisions, is a factor that must be borne in mind when making comparisons between Censuses.

Age. – In tables relating to age herein, ages recorded at Censuses have been adjusted by the distribution of unspecified ages, i.e., instances where ages have been omitted from the Census schedule. At Censuses prior to 1954 unspecified ages were distributed proportionally after completion of tabulation (over ages 15 years and upwards, except at the 1911 Census, when an attempt was made to distinguish "children" from "adults", and the distribution was made over ages 0–14 years and 15 years and over). At the 1954 Census unspecified ages were distributed over all ages prior to tabulation.

The system employed at the 1954 Census was as follows. Four packs, each of 500 cards, with ages entered thereon in appropriate proportions, were made up for each sex, and the cards were arranged in random order. The packs consisted of: – (i) a "children's" pack – ages 0–15 years, (ii) a "work force" pack – ages 16–64 years for males and 16–59 years for females, (iii) an "aged" pack – ages 65–80 years for males and 60–80 years for females, and (iv) a "general" pack – ages 16–80 years. On encountering an instance of a missing age the procedure was to determine from other information available on the Schedule the appropriate pack to be used, and the range within which the missing age must lie. This pack was then searched until the first card containing an age within that range was found, and the age thereon was inserted on the Schedule. When no supplementary information was available to determine a range of age, the "general" pack was used. A more detailed explanation of this procedure will be contained in the Statistician's Report.

Nationality. – In all Census tabulations naturalized British persons are included under the heading "British". Separate particulars of these persons are not available.

Religion. – Under the Commonwealth Census and Statistics Act the Census question on religion has always been optional, but it was not until the 1933 Census that this was stated on the Census form, a practice that has been continued at subsequent Censuses. The very large increases since 1921 in the number of persons who apparently were unwilling to answer the inquiry is to be attributed to the explicit statement that an answer is not obligatory.

Industry. – Comparisons of particulars of industry for the 1954 Census with those of previous Censuses are not provided herein, both because of the size of the tables involved and because changes in industry classification between Censuses make accurate comparison difficult, if not impossible.

The broad features of this Part may be ascertained from the Table of Contents on page 2, but to facilitate reference to particular subjects an Index to Tables is also provided - see end of publication.

This Part contains particulars relating to each characteristic of the population obtained from the 1954 Census tabulations. However, additional information is available in some instances, but limitations of space prohibit its publication in complete detail. Such additional information may be obtained on inquiry from the Commonwealth Statistician.

Particulars of full-blood aboriginals are excluded throughout.

CENSUS OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA, 1954.

NOTE. — "Not at Work", as shown in Tables Nos. 43—52, includes those who stated that they were usually engaged in work, but were not actively seeking a job at the time of the Census by reason of sickness, accident, etc. or because they were on strike, changing jobs or temporarily laid off, etc. It includes also persons able and willing to work but unable to secure employment, as well as casual and seasonal workers not actively in a job at the time of the Census. The numbers shown as "Not at Work", therefore, do not represent the number of unemployed available for work and unable to obtain it.
